Mexico - California - Washington

In Baja California, Mexico, we have established a ranch to grow ranunculus and other bulbs requiring a mild climate, disease-free soil, and plenty of water.

We have several ranches in California where we grow many kinds of bulbs, and perennials, and our main office is located at Capitola.

At Seattle, Washington, we have our own warehouse and office where complete stocks are maintained. Seattle is between the two great bulb-growing areas of the Northwest—the Skagit Valley and the Puyallup Valley.
